Student of the Founder Ueshiba Morihei and uchideshi at Aikikai Hombu Dojo in the 50s and early 60s, Yamada Shihan is one of the most prominent figures in the Aikido world today. It is his first seminar ever in Lombardia (northern Italy).

Practitioners of any rank and affiliation are invited, provided they are fully insured for practice.

Information smkmilano@gmail.com

Yamada Yoshimitsu Shihan started his practice in 1955 when he was 18 years old, at the Aikikai Hombu Dojo in Tokyo. In 1964 he was invited to present Aikido in New York, where he settled becoming the chief instructor of New York Aikikai. President of the United States Aikido Federation and of the South American Aikido Federation, he is a leading figure for many dojo also in Europe, where he has been teaching regularly for over 30 years – often together with his friend and sempai Tamura Nobuyoshi Shihan, recently passed away.
